

I am opposed to the change being proposed to the current "Do-Not-Call" listing by the Commerical Bankers Association. Allowing telemarketers to call customers with whom they have done business in the last 18 months is not necessary.